California Board of Equalization Member George Runner Endorses Nathan Mintz for State Assembly

TORRANCE, CA — California Board of Equalization Member George Runner announced his support of Nathan Mintz for State Assembly.

“Nathan Mintz is a South Bay aerospace engineer who will offer innovative solutions to help local businesses create jobs,” said California Board of Equalization Member George Runner. In Sacramento Nathan will fight higher taxes and work to eliminate wasteful government spending. Nathan’s creative solutions are exactly what are needed in Sacramento to get our state back on track.

Nathan Mintz is a sharp-minded 27-year-old aerospace engineer — an outside-of-the-box thinker who creates inventions that orbit the earth to protect our nations security. He’s built a reputation for having integrity, incredible work ethic and a clear vision to reinvent California’s government.

Local and statewide groups endorsing Nathan Mintz for State Assembly include:

- Los Angeles County Lincoln Club
- California Board of Equalization Vice-Chair Michelle Steel
- California Board of Equalization Member George Runner
- Congressman Steve Kuykendall (Ret.)
- State Senator Sharon Runner
- Assemblyman Cameron Smyth
- Assemblyman Don Wagner
- Redondo Beach Mayor Mike Gin
