Assembly Republican Leader Garrick Endorses Allan Mansoor

Costa Mesa, California – Martin Garrick, the Assembly Republican Leader, has announced his endorsement of Costa Mesa Mayor Allan Mansoor for the 68th Assembly District.

“Allan Mansoor has been a very effective mayor for Costa Mesa and his track record of balancing budgets, fighting taxes, and making government more responsive to the people is exactly what we need in Sacramento right now,” said Garrick, a businessman who represents North County San Diego.

“We need leaders with Allan’s experience and know-how in making government work if we are going to fix the mess that the Democrats have created. We need leaders who understand that we have to roll back taxes and regulations so that our entrepreneurs don’t leave for Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas and take more jobs with them,” continued Garrick.

“I appreciate the Republican Leader’s support of my campaign and his effective leadership of Assembly Republicans. I know how important it is that we put the brakes on this out-of-control government if we are going to avoid an even greater economic crisis,” said Mansoor. “The challenges we face will require tough decisions and I look forward to working with Assembly Leader Garrick to confront those challenges.”

Mayor Mansoor has balanced the budget each year without raising taxes and he is committed to cutting spending in Sacramento and balancing the state budget. He is a former Orange County Deputy Sheriff and a Republican candidate for the 68th Assembly District, currently held by Van Tran, who is running for Congress.
